

Facebook Takes 8,600 SF at 1155 F Street

December 7, 2010

Share | Email this Article

Facebook has leased 8,600 square feet in the newly renovated 1155 F Street. Currently located in Dupont Circle, Facebook will be expanding its Washington, DC presence and moving into its new Penn Quarter location at the end of April 2011.

Larry Bank from Nemark Knight Frank and Amy Kaufman from Tishman Speyer represented Facebook in the transaction, according to Douglas Development, which owns the building.

Other tenants occupying office space at 1155 F Street include, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, Shook Hardy & Bacon, Novo Nordisk, Servcorp, Intel, and Home Depot. Retail tenants include Pret-A-Manger, Guess, Andrew's Ties, and the newly opened Crumbs bakery.

Facebook's new office will be able to accommodate 30 to 40 people, an increase from its current staff of six employees. There have been no reports, however, as to how much Facebook intends to grow its government relations office.

This story was first reported by the Washington Post.