CALLING AN OLD FRIEND

Old Town Alexandria is getting the Douglas Development treatment. Anthropologie has signed a lease for Douglas' newly acquired 610-612 King St. and will move in by the end of the year. The 10,500 SF space used to be a Hallmark (so no more Precious Moments, unless you want to make the card by hand). Douglas owns nine Old Town properties (60k SF), leased to retailers like BGR The Burger Joint, Cosi, Urban Angler, and Circle Salon & Day Spa.

Douglas and Anthropologie go way back—well, to October 2010, when the retailer leased space at the Atlantic Building (950 F St.) in the East End, above. That one will open this September.

We also snapped the office portion at 950 F this morning.

Goodbye Donovan; hello Donte. Is it enough? Email amanda.metcalf@bisnow.com.
