

AUGUST 22, 2011 | Home » Management » » PREIT Provides Updates on its Leasing Activity

Other Notable News

Douglas Development signed two new leases at its Penn Quarter properties in Washington, D.C. Anthropologie signed a 10,662-square-foot lease at 950 F Street and Pi Pizzeria signed a 5,500-square-foot lease.

Urban Land Institute appointed Marilee Utter as executive vice president of the institute's district council program, a global program serving members in the U.S., Europe and Asia. In her new position, Utter will be responsible for the overall management, leadership and delivery of the conceptual and programmatic functions offered by the council. She was previously president of Citiventure Associates LLC and managing partner of P3 West LLC.

RCS Real Estate Advisors promoted Moe Puri to the position of vice president. Puri previously served as assistant vice president.

Walker & Dunlop promoted Ernest Benjamin to vice president and deputy chief underwriter for its FHA Finance program. Benjamin has been with Walker & Dunlop since March 2009, most recently as assistant vice president of FHA Finance.

Marcus & Millichap Real Estate Investment Services promoted Simon Jonna to vice president of investments. Jonna has been with Marcus & Millichap since May 2005, most recently in the position of associate vice president of investments. He specializes in the sale of retail properties. Marcus & Millichap also promoted Tammy A. Saia to vice president of investments. Saia has been with Marcus & Millichap since September 2003, most recently serving as associate vice president of investments. She specializes in the sale of retail properties.

CBL & Associates Properties Inc. hired Jimmy Neely and Kyle Capshaw as senior leasing manager and leasing manager respectively. In his new position, Neely will be responsible for Hanes Mall in Winston Salem, N.C. and Randolph Mall in Asheboro, N.C. Capshaw will be responsible for Arbor Place Mall in Atlanta, Georgia Square in Athens, Ga. and Walnut Square Mall in Dalton, Ga. Previously, Neely worked for Colonial Property Trust and Capshaw for Pyramid Management Group.

Partner Engineering and Science Inc. appointed Mark Lambson as national director of its equity advisory group. In his new position, Lambson will lead a national team of professionals in engineering and environmental investigation, reporting and remediation of commercial real estate assets for the firm's non-lender clients. Lambson already serves as principal of the firm.